

2014 August, 29

"Passione mediterranea" (Lit. Mediterranean Passion) by Gabriele toso.

July.

BACK

With "Passione mediterranea", the July of the calendar Visions, Gabriele Toso plunges us into a dreamy world and in a real "mixer" of emotions. The photo speaks alone and it says everything about itself at the first glance. We will see a preview of it on September 5th, with the presentation that will take place during the Women's night at the hotel Excelsior in Venice. Gabriele is a free-lance photographer, with different projects going on. He is a young, versatile expert with a solid technical background. A skill that allows him to switch from professional shots to teaching activities. In fact, he is a teacher of communication and history of photography, audio-visual language and image composition. But that's not all. From the beginning of his carrier Gabriele Toso has been engaged in projects of social photography, including "Overoltre", organizing and managing exhibitions and events.

BIOGRAPHY

Gabriele Toso: was born in 1977 in Padua. He began his professional path in his own town, which made him reach the educational maturity and get a diploma as a technician in graphic design and advertising. His training continued at ISFAV - Institute of Photography and Visual Arts and later he achieves important and prestigious professional awards. He is very involved into social projects and "Olveroltre" represents the highest expression of this social aspect. "The image is the eye of human feelings, is a mirror of life, is what we are through the eyes of others ... in order to go BEYOND the appearance of things". Gabriel Toso